

IRC Nigeria CEO Awarded Africa Most Respected HR Personality

December 10th 2015

Dr. Ije Jidenma, the Founder and CEO of IRC Nigeria and a notable Human Resources & Organizational Development consultant, was conferred with the award of “Africa Most Respected HR Personality of the Year” by the African Development Magazine (ADM).

The Award Ceremony, which attracted captains of industry from across the African Continent, including from the development sector, was held at the Intercontinental Hotel, Nairobi, Kenya on 20th November 2015.

The Guest Speakers at the event were Mr Gabriel Negetu, the Regional Director (East Africa) African Development Bank and Dr Richard Munag, the Co-ordinator, United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP).

“Africa is the next frontier and we, the Africans are the ones to make the rising of our continent inevitable and sustainable by networking and collaborating within our continent. We must facilitate the reduction of barriers be they physical, man made or even psychological so that with our local commitment and global connectedness, we can realize our full potential and take our rightful place in the world”, says Ije.
