

IRC with New Partner in Greece

June 22nd, 2017

IRC Global Executive Search Partners is now ranked as the largest global executive search alliance by Hunt Scanlon Media recently and it continues its worldwide expansion. IRC Greece (MEIHUNT Corporate Talent Management) has recently become the 47th IRC member.

IRC Greece is dedicated to providing service beyond the traditional executive search and evaluation process. The team specializes in the pharmaceutical, retail and FMCG sectors and offers a unique talent management service. It is able to continuously map and monitor talent progress in leading positions across an industry and has done so for more than 8 years.

“We are very happy to have a new partner in Greece. We believe this will further strengthen the position of IRC in the EMEA region and bring new opportunities for our partners and clients around the world,” says Patrick Westerburger, the President of IRC.

Katerina Meimaroglou, IRC Greece Founder & Managing Partner, comments: “We are joining IRC at a critical socioeconomic time for Greece and we are confident that we are now able not only to offer our international clients a global proposition in terms of executive search and talent acquisition, but also to nominate senior and C-level executives for international assignments to expand their careers abroad.”

“We have assembled an elite team of executives with hands-on experience and extensive knowledge across all major industries, at the very highest levels of management and operations and we are fully committed to delivering an outstanding client experience. At IRC Greece, we know what our clients want and we also understand the needs and perspectives of the candidates we consider,” says Katerina Meimaroglou about her team in IRC Greece.
