

IRC Global Executive Search Partners Expand to Hungary

IRC Global Executive Search Partners (IRC) adds partner from Budapest, with experience operating in Hungary for more than eight years.

April 2015

BM Recruitment, a company located in Budapest, joins the family of IRC members and brings additional experience and coverage across the Central European market. Both parties believe that the joint agreement enhances the alliance and increases the benefits that can be offered to clients both regionally and globally.

Patrick Westerburger, President of the Board of IRC Global Executive Search Partners comments: "With the new partner in Hungary IRC will be able to serve our clients from 78 offices worldwide. Over the past years Hungary has been attracting manufacturing business in a broad range of industries, one of them being suppliers to the global automotive industry. We're pleased that the Managing Partner of IRC Hungary, Barbara Vincze and her team are bringing this industry expertise together with deep experience in other sectors. With our presence in Budapest IRC will further strengthen the regional reach for retained executive search services across the EMEA region."

"We are glad to join IRC and the possibility of introducing the IRC brand to the Hungarian market. With the IRC alliance we can strengthen our executive search services and are able to offer international coverage for our Clients.

With IRC we are a part of a professional and committed international team, focusing on offering tailor made executive search services for the Hungarian market", Barbara Vincze, Managing Director of BM Recruitment says.
