

IRC: fastest growing global executive search alliance

From Top 15 to Top 4 in Five Years

New York, September 30th 2015

Over the past 5 years IRC Global Executive Search Partners has substantially increased its global presence of boutique retained executive search firms.

From a membership base of 31 countries and 54 offices in 2010, IRC has grown to 45 countries and 80 offices this year. At the Annual Global Conference which is held in New York on October 1st and 2nd this year IRC is welcoming partners from its new offices in India, Hungary, Nigeria, Thailand and Malaysia.

Mr Patrick Westerburger, President of the executive board commented: "More and more international organizations have discovered the added value of working with an alliance of boutique partner firms. Our partners have a deep knowledge of their local markets, bring an entrepreneurial spirit and operate according to the highest standards in the industry. Our international clients have tripled over the 10 years and we continuously measure our performance and quality, including diversity & inclusion. In all sectors we are working with highly specialized teams, covering all regions of the world. Besides the traditional industry teams in areas such as Manufacturing, Life Sciences, Technology and Finance we have also developed specialist teams in Real Estate, Education and Not for Profit. In terms of geographical coverage we are in the global top 4, leaving many of the big executive firms behind us"
