

New IRC Partner in Hong Kong

February 27, 2018

IRC Global Executive Search Partners continues its expansion in the Asia Pacific region. After adding a new member in South Korea last year, IRC Hong Kong (The Office Limited), led by Rachel Ta, join as our newest partner.

IRC Hong Kong (The Office Limited) is a boutique search firm based in Hong Kong. The experienced team consisting of Rachel Ta, Daniel Tran and Chung Yeung has been operating in Asia well over 15 years.

Deep market knowledge and engagement efficiency are achieved by functional and industry specialization. Their core practices are Consumer Markets, Industrial Practice and Human Resources.

Rachel Ta, the Managing Director and Founder of The Office Limited, is a known leader in the executive search industry. She believes that technology brings a constant change to the recruitment model. Rachel was raised in Paris and speaks French, English and Cantonese. Prior to establishing The Office Limited, she led Derwent Executive in Hong Kong, growing it into a reputable brand and market leader in Industrial, Sourcing, HR and Retail. Over her 9 years tenure, she also set up the Beijing and Shanghai offices.

“We are executive specialist with expert based practices delivering on senior, confidential and complex mandates. Our role is to leverage our 15 years+ expertise to help our clients define a winning talent management strategy for sustainable growth. I am hoping that with our firm now being part of the IRC platform, we will be able to offer Asian based clients a new hiring perspective based on global best practices and bring into Asia more international returnees / talents. As a boutique firm, we believe strongly in connecting globally while delivering locally,” adds Rachel.
