

IRC adds another Partner in the US

September 19, 2019

IRC Global Executive Search Partners expands its presence in the US market, adding Hunt Executive Search as the sixth IRC member in the USA.

IRC USA – Hunt Executive Search is a boutique retained firm headquartered in Charlotte, NC. They are prominent talent consultants in executive search and private equity/board advisory, providing a deeply connected and engaged personal service approach and a 25-year history of strong relationships with multi-national, private equity and private company leadership globally.

The firm is led by Joseph B. Hunt. Joe has over 30 years' executive search experience personally conducting hundreds of C suite and functional vertical leadership searches and installing dozens of executives on boards.

“I’ve had the opportunity to meet with and assess most of the global networks. While rivals had some great people, none were equal to IRC’s leadership, commitment to connection and engagement amongst global partners, and 1+1 equaling more than the sum of its parts. This occurs through collaboration and creates value for all stakeholders, especially our clients,” says Joseph B. Hunt, Managing Partner of IRC USA – Hunt Executive Search.

“The US is such a key market for IRC, and it is great to have another leading search firm join the IRC family. We further strengthen our capacity to partner and serve clients wherever they might be,” adds Rohan Carr, IRC President.
