

IRC Expands in the Americas Region with New Partner in Argentina

May 14, 2018

IRC Global Executive Search Partners expands its presence in the Americas region, adding IRC Argentina (HighFlow) as the newest member of the worldwide executive search firm alliance.

IRC Argentina (HighFlow) is a recruitment firm, based in Buenos Aires, specialized in Finance & Banking and Sales & Marketing sectors. Its focus is on customized solutions for clients, delivering the highest standards of quality and professionalism, ensuring outstanding results.

The firm is led by two partners, Federico Carrera and Mauro L'Estrange. Mr L'Estrange has extensive work experience in multinational companies and in the financial sector. He participated in the Page-Group Start-Up in Uruguay and later led the Finance team at Wall Chase. He specializes in Finance & Banking sector and worked for companies such as Robert Bosch and Citibank.

Mr Carrera has extensive work experience in commercial positions with multinational companies and SMEs, and specializes in Sales & Marketing. He led teams from Page Group and Wall Chase, and worked in other companies such as Colgate - Palmolive and L'Oreal.

“By joining IRC Global Executive Search Partners we will be able to help our clients find suitable candidates all over the world. By standardizing the service level and sharing the best practices of the market, we trust that IRC will allow us to reach our objectives and those of our clients,” adds Federico Carrera.

“The South American region is such a key part of the global economy and Argentina has always been a key country in the Americas. We are excited to welcome our newest member aboard,” concludes Rohan Carr, IRC President of the IRC Executive Board.
