July 01, 2019

People Executive is IRC Global Executive Search Partners' new partner in Denmark. Denmark is an important market with many international knowledge-intensive companies with cross-border recruitment needs. With an exclusive partner in this country, our global executive search firm alliance has strengthened its presence in Scandinavia.

"We are very excited to welcome People Executive into the IRC family. Based on our past experience we know that the partners will contribute much to our alliance and strengthen our already outstanding Nordic team," says Rohan Carr, IRC President.

The firm is led by a strong team of four partners Anders Jørgensen, Niels Prehn, Jesper Dambo and Naja Gissel. People Executive has extensive experience within the executive search as well as search and selection in the Danish market and is well known for high quality and tailored solutions across segments and industries.

Niels Prehn, Managing Partner: "We are proud to be part of such a strong and well-established alliance of experienced executive search partners. We will work hard to further develop the corporation between the IRC alliance and the Nordic region to maximize business results for our customers and for our partners in the IRC alliance."
