

IRC Names New Americas Leader to the NGO & Not For Profit Practice Group

June 3rd, 2019

With the increasing demand for senior executives in the NGOs and Not-for-profit organisations and the growing importance of this sector, IRC Global Executive Search Partners is extending its global NGO & Not-for-profit team.

Pía Puebla Menne (IRC Chile) has been newly named the Americas Practice Leader of the NGO & Not-for-profit Practice Group. The team is led by Global Practice Leader Malcolm Duncan (IRC Australia), Grant Pryde (IRC New Zealand) continues in his role as Asia Pacific Leader and Patrick Westerburger (IRC Netherlands) as EMEA Practice Leader.

Malcolm Duncan, Global Practice Leader, introduces the new Americas Practice Leader: “Pia provides an invaluable perspective on NGO’s and NFP’s in the dynamic, challenging and transforming Americas landscape – we welcome her leadership and strategic insights for our clients and stakeholders in this space.”

IRC’s new Americas Practice Leader Pía Puebla Menne (IRC Chile) adds: “I am honoured to be appointed the Americas Practice Leader for the NGO & Not-for-profit practice group. Our global team, from the Americas to Asia and from Africa to Europe, has helped companies find the right talent to meet the challenges this sector faces, despite their location, by reaching out to local markets and expanding cultural knowledge. IRC Global Executive Search Partners deliver quality service worldwide. We’re truly locally committed and globally connected.”
